THE EAST.

T. L. Kimball Appointed Successor to Mr. Potter.

THE END OF THE SANTA FE STRIKE.

The Engineers and Firemen Ordered to Return to Work—A Mother and Her Daughter Burned to Death—Mayor Hewitt in Trouble.

ST LOUIS March 18 —Information has been received here that Thomas L Kimball has been appointed acting general manager of the Union Pacific railroad, and that J. C. Cameron will take the place formerly occupied by Mr. Kimball.

SANTA FE STRIKE ENDED

The Difficulty Adjusted and the Engineers and Firemen Go to Work

KANSAS CITY, March 18 —The Santa Fe strike is over. The following official notice was issued at 6 o'clock this morning:

KANSAS CITY March 18

To Engineers and Firemen on the Santa Fe system I am advised by our grand chief to request of you that you will return to your respective positions at once, and further that I repair to Chicago and adjust all misunderstanding

J. CONROE.

Chairman General Grievance Committee.

Trains were moved to-day with some regularity The California and New Mexico, due to leave at 10 10 A. M., and the Denver and Utah express, due at leave at 11 45, were consolidated and left at 11 30. No. 71, Southern Kansas, left at 12 14, thirty minutes late. The Colorado express, due at 6 A. M., arrived at 6 45 The eastbound California and northbound Kansas express, due to arrive at 4.50 and 6:15 P. M. respectively, were reported abandoned. Trains on the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Gulf road all went out on time this morning, with no indications of trouble.

The depot presented a quiet appearance all day as there was little interest taken in the movement of trains, and the general feeling was that the strike was over. As one of the men mounted his engine to take out the train, an old engineer, standing in a group near by, turned to his companions and said

"Well, boys, fall in; the last man to go back will be the one who gets left. It is only a matter of time now."

The prediction was verified when at 6 o'clock Chairman Conroe's notice was issued. The men took the matter philosophically, and this evening nearly all of them present in the city were applying to Assistant Superintendent Spoor for orders for transportation, etc.

ORDERED TO RESUME WORK.

TOPEKA, March 18.—This afternoon at 4 20 chairman Conroe wired General Manager Goddard from Kansas City as follows.

J T Goddard The engineers and firemen will resume work. J CONROE

Traffic Manager White says all lines from the Missouri river to the Pacific coast will be in usual condition for business without delay. There is no blockade anywhere, and trains are in good shape to move at once.

SATISFACTORILY ARRANGED.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 —A special from Albuquerque, New Mexico, says: F M. Rain, the trainmaster on the Santa Fe at Las Vegas, telegraphed that the chairman of the grievance committee at Kansas City has arranged matters satisfactorily, and announces to engineers to report immediately for duty. Yesterday all the clerks at the depots were discharged temporarily but will be reinstated. The news spread rapidly that engineers are making preparations to assume their posts. This applies to the Atlantic and Pacific.

ARTHUR AND SARGENT'S VIEWS.

Their Opinion After the End of the Santa Fe Strike.

CHICAGO, March 18 —Chief Arthur was asked to-night what he thought of the decision of the Santa Fe men to return to work. "I am glad they went to work," he said, "I advised them to go back because I did not think there was sufficient cause for a strike. I communicated with Mr Conroe, chairman of the grievance committee, and asked him to request the men to return to work and then come to Chicago to settle the matter with Mr Smith"

Grand Master Sargent said The men of the Santa Fe went back at 6 o'clock. He had no information as to the causes of the strike, or what had induced the men to go back beyond the fact that they had conference with the officials of the road at Kansas City, or Topeka, and that an agreement was there made that the railroad would not require men to haul any Burlington freight and they went back on the strength of that agreement.

MAYOR HEWITT HAVING TROUBLE.

Considerable Displeasure Caused by His Late Actions and Utterances

NEW YORK, March 18 —Mayor Hewitt seems to have displeased everybody lately. The mayor would not allow the Irish flag on the City hall The Irish are much displeased, mostly because Hewitt's remarks on the subject were not to their thinking. Powderly hit the mayor a rap in a long article in the Journal of United Labor yesterday. He scored the mayor as a member of a trust and as a dyspeptic.

The mayor says that Powderly's attack is scurrilous and a pure fabrication, and also says that he thinks that society suffers grievously from a combination of the ignorant rich and the ignorant poor.

Mayor Hewitt is also in trouble with Grand Army men He was asked to endorse a bill providing that no honorably discharged veteran now in office be discharged save under charges and after hearing. Men asked the mayor to approve the bill. The mayor got mad and said he was getting tired of the attempts at dictation. If such attempts continued he would be tempted to run for mayor again to see if the people or organizations and societies controlled the election

The veterans then became angry and adopted resolutions severely condemning the mayor

The mayor said "I won't be threatened. Granted that the soldiers saved the country, did they save it for themselves alone? Is nobody to have anything but them? The bill they want would give them a monopoly of the offices But the Irish, Germans, Italians and veterans I treat alike. I don't intend to run again but if they keep on domineering I may get my back up"

CODIFICATION CONVENTION

The Bill Providing for the Practical Uniformity of Laws

NEW YORK, March 18 —The bill introduced into the state senate providing for the practical uniformity of laws in the United States referring to large numbers and diverse characters of insolvency forms, of notes, certificates and other subjects, provides for the appointment by the governor of three commissioners whose duty it shall be to examine into and ascertain the best means to affect the assimilation and uniformity in the laws of different states, and to consider whether it would be wise and practicable for the state of New York to invite other states of the Union to the codification convention

HORRIBLE FATE.

A Mother and Her Daughter Burned to Death.

CHICAGO, March 18.—Mrs. Wm. Dalton was burned to death with her 4-year-old daughter in the Tremont house. The fire was on South Clark street early this morning. About a dozen other persons made their escape in a semi-nude condition. A dissolute tailor who was evicted from the premises for non-payment of rent is suspected of having set the place on fire.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

CONGRESSIONAL PROGRAMME.

WASHINGTON, March 18 —In the senate on Wednesday, Platt will try to bring forward the enabling act for South Dakota Senator Morrow will take the first convenient opportunity to call up for action the house bill for the investment of the treasury surplus in government bonds, and Senator Plumb will make an attempt during the week to get a hearing for the bill to forfeit unearned land grants It is announced that the senate committee on foreign [illegible] the fisheries treaty.

It is probable that the public lands bill will be again called up in the house to-morrow. If that measure is not pressed, however, certain of the committees will be recognized to offer motions to pass bills under suspension of the rules. Indications are that the labor committee will succeed in securing Tuesday or Wednesday for the consideration of its bill.

THREATENED CLASH AVERTED

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The threatened clash between the postoffice department and the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Company was averted by amicable agreement early to-day before the strike was declared off by the Brotherhood. T. E Nash, general superintendent of the railway mail service, said this evening, in explanation of the matter, that vice-President Smith had directed his men to see that the mails were moved promptly over the company's lines, and, that whenever they found it impossible to get the engineers to move passengers and freight, but who were willing to move the mails, that the trains be ordered out with mails only.

GONE TO CHICAGO

KANSAS CITY, March 18 —Chairman Conroe returned from Topeka this morning, and at once called a meeting of the committee, and it is understood that preparatory steps toward issuing the notice was taken at this meeting. Chairman Conroe left for Chicago at 4 10 this afternoon, and was fifty miles out of the city by the time his latter was promulgated. The prevailing opinion here is that the conference at Topeka had considerable influence towards bringing about a settlement The ex strikers here assert that the company has agreed not to haul Burlington freight

PETITION FROM CALIFORNIA

WASHINGTON, March 18 —Representatives from California, democrats and republicans alike, have requested Chairman Mills to permit Congressman Morrow to address the ways and means committee on matters set forth in the petition telegraphed from San Francisco, and signed by a great number of California business men in reference to the bad effect that Mills's bill would have on ship building.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

AN IMPORTANT SUIT.

DULUTH, March 18 —The heirs of Henry Beck, who claim the title through ancient Indian deed to eighty acres of land in the county of Duluth, valued at nearly a million dollars, have appealed from the recent adverse decision of the district court, and will try the case in the supreme court. Their case is regarded as preposterous, but their attorneys state that good evidence has been secured, which will result in the reversal of the decision of the lower court. The property in dispute is generally improved and built upon.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL LEAGUE.

NEW YORK, March 18.—President Foster of the republican national league has just returned from a western trip, and says that he finds the republican party generally harmonious in all sections. The national league is preparing to make a systematic canvass of voters. The plan is to publish, on a great scale, documents concerning the advantages of protection for the benefit of new voters. The National League will be organized as a permanent institution, and is incorporating in some places.

TWO BIG MORTGAGES.

BENHAM, Tex., March 17.—The county clerk at this place is engaged in recording two big mortgages. They are for twenty-five million dollars each, both given by the Texas and Pacific Railway Company. One is executed to the Fidelity Insurance Trust Deposit Company, of Philadelphia, and the other to the Mercantile Trust Company of New York. The two documents comprise seventy-nine pages of printed matter. The money thus raised is to pay off the indebtedness and reorganize the company.

SAILED FOR EUROPE.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Among the passengers for Europe on the steamer Etruria was Ignatius Donnelly, who is known as the defender of Lord Bacon's right to the authorship of Shakespeare's plays. He goes to make arrangements for the English copyright of his book, which is to be published in London by May next, simultaneously with its appearance here. Donnelly will deliver a lecture while in England before the Baconian society at their request.

AN ATTACK ON MAYOR HEWITT.

NEW YORK, March 17 —The Journal of United Labor, out to-day, publishes a three-column article which attacks Mayor Hewitt in strong terms. It alleges that the mayor is a friend of protection, and a member of one of the "life supplying trusts."

Mr Hewitt said to-day "Mr Powderly, the writer of that article, simply lies. I am not a member of any trust, and never have been. I am opposed to trusts, and have so said in public."

VIRGINIA POLITICS.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Gov Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, says concerning Southern politics that all Virginia democrats are for Cleveland. Political changes have occurred in Virginia, and democrats will not have a walk-over in the state. Blaine is stronger in Virginia than Sherman would be. He concludes that Cleveland will have Virginia's electoral vote notwithstanding his message concerning the tariff.

CLEARING HOUSE RETURNS.

BOSTON, March 18.—A statement compiled from specials to the Post from the managers of leading clearing houses in the United States show the gross clearings for the week ending March 17 were $682,688,298, a decrease of 29 3 per cent. for the corresponding period last year.

MUST SHOW HIS MOTOR.

PHILADELPHIA, May 18 —Judge Finletter has ordered that Keeley must show his motor. The plaintiff who secures the decision is Bennett Wilson, who has had a half interest in the motor since 1869, but has been unable to inspect the invention.

HIGH PRICED COPIES.

NEW YORK, March 18 —The Tribune's London special says Henry Irving bought at the Aylesford sale a copy of the second folio of Shakespeare, with notes by Dr. Sam Johnson, for £140. A first edition went for £200.

BALD KNOBBERS ON TRIAL.

ST LOUIS, March 18 —The trial of the Bald Knobbers at Ozark was interrupted yesterday by the breaking down of John Matthews. He confessed to a liberal share in the Eden's Green murder, but choked and told a story which exculpates Graves Matthews said he was led into the thing and wanted to confess. The state refused to receive his offer to plead guilty of murder in the second degree.

Protection and Wages.

Galveston News

Money wages have fallen in the protected industries of the United States during the last few years, since the flush of protectionism. Such a system can be but a temporary aid to wages. China, the ideally protected country, is not a country of high wages, as everybody has heard.

Shocking Death of a Street Car Conductor.

O'CONNOR WINS THE BOAT RACE

The Chinese Failure to be Investigated—A Big Real Estate Sale Declared Off—Polk County Prohibition Convention

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 —This afternoon Henry Mangle, a conductor on the Sutter street cable railroad, accidentally fell between the dummy and the car proper, and received injuries which will probably result in his death One of his arms was broken in two places, and his head was bruised and cut.

When Mangle fell a police officer, who was passing, ran to the scene and saw the man lying in his own gore In a moment he secured a carriage, and with the assistance of a few willing hands the bleeding form was placed in a vehicle and taken to the hospital, where two physicians were employed for an hour in attending to the wounded man

It was found that both jaws were broken also the left arm, and that several scalp wounds were inflicted Mangle had a wife He is about 37 years of age and had been in the employ of the company about six months. Mangle died to-night.

SCULLING RACE.

O'Connor, the Canadian, Defeats Peterson at the Oars.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 —O'Connor of Canada won the sculling race at Alameda to-day, defeating Peterson of California by four lengths O'Connor's time was 20 minutes and 23 seconds.

ACCOUNT OF THE RACE.

About 15,000 people this afternoon witnessed the three-mile sculling race between O'Connor of Canada and Peterson of California, on what is known as the Oakland neck of San Francisco bay. The water was comparatively smooth, and both men were apparently in good condition The day was as fine a one as could be desired. O'Connor's shell is the same one in which he defeated Hamm last fall Peterson's was manufactured in Boston, being what is sometimes styled by sportsmen "Irish make" The bow slopes down under water, while that of O'Connor's turns up. Wagers on the men before the race were about even Owing to Peterson being a local oarsman he was slightly the favorite with the majority of the people, but with sportsmen, especially those from abroad, O'Connor was generally first choice The race was to have been at 3.30 P. M, but it was nearly half an hour later before it was called.

The start was an even one. O'Connor quickly pulled ahead. O'Connor rowed thirty six strokes to the minute to Peterson's thirty-nine At a half mile, O'Connor led by a half a length At a mile, O'Connor led by three lengths, and increased it to four at the turn, a mile and a half from the starting point. In the last half-mile, before turning, Peterson steered wildly, encroaching on O'Connor's water. O'Connor's time to the turn was ten minutes and twenty seconds. On the race homeward, Peterson laid himself well to the oars to regain what distance he had lost. When about at the two-mile post, Peterson spurted, but O'Connor met it with responsive strokes. For the rest of the race, O'Connor maintained the lead of four lengths, rowing thirty eight strokes to Peterson's thirty O'Connor passed the winning post in twenty minutes and twenty-three seconds, Peterson ten seconds later. O'Connor was comparatively fresh at the close, while Peterson showed signs of exhaustion.

THE CHIN KIT FAILURE.

He Fails for a Large Amount—Assets, Liabilities, Etc —Suspension to be Investigated

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—The Chinese merchant who has been doing business under the firm name of Kwong Shew Lung & Company, at the corner of Clay and Dupont streets, is otherwise known as Chin Kit, the latter being his own name. This is the failure that was announced yesterday

Near four years ago he began to ship flour, woolen goods, staple groceries and other articles of every day use to China and Honolulu, and in order to get the coin needed for this trade gave promissory notes, and agreed to pay 2 per cent per month interest. When the notes became due he made others with which to pay them, and at ruinous interest, enough in itself to break him up. He has gone on accumulating all the time.

In all, $80,000 was borrowed by Chin Kit from private parties on this weighted down security. The liabilities amounted to $70,000 there being ninety creditors.

The stock of fancy goods in the store is valued at $10,000, but beyond this there are no assets, save book accounts, aggregating $30 000 many of which are wholly valueless or doubtful.

Included in them are accounts amounting to between $5000 and $6000 lost when the Chinese were driven out of Seattle, about $3000 by the enforced departure of Chinese from Eureka, and from $5000 to $6000 lost on Chinese stores in this country which burned down and were uninsured. Chin Kit also lost $5000 by the failure of May Lee, of Portland, a few days ago The book accounts will therefore not afford much consolation to creditors.

Chin also endorsed notes for several Chinamen who lately failed, and he does not know to what extent he is involved in their downfall. The list of creditors will be furnished the board of trade to-morrow or Tuesday The Chinese board of trade has appointed a committee to investigate the suspension.

SALE DECLARED OFF.

A Reported Big Purchase of Land Falls Through

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 —There is much surprise here over the fact that a reported sale of 19,400 acres of land at Dumbarton Point, which is up the bay from San Francisco, to some big railway corporation, has fallen through F. E. Austin was the individual who was said to have agreed to pay $670,000 for the land Some reported that he was acting for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul road others said that he was acting for the Santa Fe company Austin himself denied that he was agent for either company in the matter, but tried to give rise to the impression that some railroad was backing him It now turns out that he was acting for no road or individual, unless himself, because yesterday he failed to make the first payment of $30,000, and the directors of the River, Harbor, Land and Dredging Company, went through the form of declaring the sale off Week before last he was to have paid the $30,000. He did not have the money, but on telling a pretty little story to the effect that the people he represented were so far away that rapid and intelligent communication with them was impossible he was allowed to pay $5000 down and given two weeks' time in which to pay the remaining $25 000.

SHOCKING DEATH

A Man Falls from the Cars—His Head and Arms Cut Off

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 —About 3 o'clock this afternoon Philip Smith, an iron molder, met his death in a shocking manner He was standing on the rear platform of one of the steam cars that run between Golden Gate park and the Cliff house. When the train was going toward the ocean and was rounding the turn, he being slightly under the influence of liquor, lost his balance and fell off His body fell across the left one of the double tracks. He struggled to rise, but being partly stunned, he made little headway The incoming train was almost up to Smith when he fell It therefore could not be stopped in time, and the train ran over him His head was cut entirely from his body by the wheels of the cars, while both arms suffered a like fate.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO NOTES.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—Blanche Lewis, the five-year old child who fell over the balustrade at the Yosemite house last night, died early this morning.

H H. Lynch, general manager of the Powell street cable road, states that the rope of the Jackson street branch will be spliced and the circuit completed by to-morrow morning, and that the entire road would be in working order by next Wednesday. The wheels which carry the cable at the engine house, at the corner of Mason and Washington streets, are fourteen feet in diameter, being two feet greater than the diameter of the same wheels on any other road. The fly wheel of the engine which is to run the cars weighs over twenty-two tons.

Peter Sullo, a ship carpenter was found this morning lying on Natoma street near Fourth in an insensible condition. He was conveyed to the receiving hospital where it was found that he had suffered three very severe scalp wounds which were evidently inflicted by brass knuckles or some similar weapon He had evidently lain most of the night unconscious. He was robbed.

CRUDE PETROLEUM AS FUEL.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 —The use of crude petroleum as fuel has become a matter of contention between insurance men and manufacturers in this city and the question has been carried before the supervisors for settlement. The high price of coal makes fuel a question of grave importance to consumers, large manufactories being particularly interested As there is no immediate prospect of relief from the coal famine the manufacturers are pressing the supervisors for a settlement of the matter in order that they may relieve themselves by using a cheaper fuel. Firemen and citizens generally are interested in the question of safety, and the former are taking action on the part of self-protection in the coal oil quarrel

THEATRICAL GOSSIP

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 —At the Baldwin to-morrow night Booth and Barrett begin the last week of their engagement here. During the week they will appear in "Hamlet," "Julius Cæsar," "Othello," "King Lear," and conclude with the "Merchant of Venice" Saturday night.

At the California theater "Paul Kauvar" will be the attraction for another week.

At the Bush street theater, beginning to-morrow evening, the Irish drama "My Geraldine" will be presented by Harrison & Rogers's company.

At the Alcazar to-morrow night Joseph Grismer and Phœbe Davies begin the second week of engagement in "Chispa."

END OF THE PLASTERERS'S STRIKE.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 10.—The strike of the plasterers on the new city hall came to a sudden end yesterday. The men walked out because sub-Contractor Lund would not discharge his brother, who is a non-union man. Friday night the plasterers of the union met to take action in the premises. After some discussion it was agreed that Lund's brother should quit work subject to the action of the Plasterers' union, which will hold a meeting to-morrow evening. He will probably then be admitted to membership. It was further agreed that old hands should return to work, at least as many as there is employment for at present.

THE QUARANTINED STEAMER.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—It is stated that the Oriental and Occidental Steamship Co. will endeavor to charter the steamer Eastern Oregon, which was formerly on the Yaquina Bay line, and which is now laid up. If successful, will transfer the cabin passengers of the Oceanic, which has arrived from China, to her, when the steamer no doubt will be allowed to dock. The Oceanic is now under quarantine.

ROW IN CHINATOWN

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 —The trouble which began some time ago between the two Chinese societies here was renewed this afternoon. Several promiscuous shots were fired, causing the inhabitants in that vicinity to stampede. One shot took effect in the head of Ah Lee. So far as learned no others were injured.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY BUILDINGS.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 —Good progress is being made at Palo Alto, with the Stanford university building. The stone work on the third story is completed, and the fourth will be finished within the week. Two large buildings, a chapel and arched arcade, connecting the class rooms will be proceeded with.

UNDERGOING REPAIRS.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 —The steamer George W. Elder is having alterations and repairs made to her upper works at the Broadway wharf, previous to her departure for the North. It is learned that Capt. Carroll, of the steamer Idaho, will soon come down and take command of the George W Elder.

ESCAPE OF PRISONERS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18 —Four prisoners in the Alameda jail made their escape this evening by sawing the iron bars of the jail window. All were serving sentence for petty larceny except one, O'Brien, who was serving a sentence of 680 days for setting fire to railroad ties last November.

STEAMER UMATILLA.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—The steamer Umatilla takes to Victoria a cargo valued at $14,187 and in transit to St. Paul, via Vancouver, 11,200 pounds of sugar valued at $750.

POLK COUNTY PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

SALEM, March 18.—The Polk county prohibition convention was held in the Dallas county court house yesterday. A. W. Lucas, of Monmouth, was nominated by acclamation for the state senate. J W Lewis, of Dixie, Ashley White, of Zena, were nominated for representatives. McMinn Dodson, of Dallas, for county judge, P. C. Sears, sheriff, and a full ticket was placed in the field. State Organizer J. W. Webb addressed the convention and citizens, and he and Prof G M Miller spoke in the court house at night. Mr Lucas, in accepting, said he had worked from principle for the republican party when it was smaller than the prohibition party now is. He promised to make a canvass of the county. Others will do the same.

REARRESTED BUT RELEASED.

TACOMA, March 18 —U S. Marshal Meade and party arrived from Janos, Mexico, this morning, where they were taken prisoners by Mexicans on March 6, while in pursuit of train robbers. Being without food and blankets they decided to go to Janos and ask assistance from Mexicans. On arriving in the city officers greeted the party cordially and promised assistance They were then ordered to put their arms in a room, and immediately upon doing so were told they were prisoners After being confined eight days, with very little to eat, they were then released by the governor of Chihuahua, but their horses and arms confiscated.

PORTLAND, MONDAY, MARCH 19, 1888.

THE LEASE AGAIN.

Portland's objection to the joint lease is not, as a Puget sound paper declares, founded upon a wish for an unfair advantage over any other port or market It is not because the joint lease proposes to give the ports of Puget sound an "equal show" that we protest, but because it proposes to give them the advantage in an unnatural and unequal arrangement. To make Portland and Puget sound "common points for the traffic of the Columbia basin, is not equal or fair because it costs less to haul a ton of grain down the Columbia river pass to Portland than across the mountains to the sound and because it costs more to send a ton of grain from Portland to the open sea than from Seattle or Tacoma to the open sea. The proposed arrangement would nullify our advantage, leaving us the disadvantage between Portland and the sea—in short, it would confirm and make permanent the conditions which have prevailed during the past season, under which wheat can be shipped more cheaply by the sound route than by the Columbia river route

If the O R & N Co is left free from engagements with the Northern or other roads, it will be in a position where it can apply part of its profits on the haul to Portland to the carriage from Portland to the sea, and since its value as property depends upon its retaining the grain traffic, it will have to do it A small per cent. of the profits arising from the advantage over the Northern route in the matter of grades will overcome the disadvantage on the river, leaving the route from the basin by way of the Columbia river to the sea, cheaper than the route by way of the Sound. It is this that the joint lease will defeat by making Portland and the Sound ports "common points." Under this arrangement it would soon be found cheaper to take the Northern route, and if the O R & N should propose to defend its own business by the natural method of assisting traffic on the lower river, the Northern, being a party in its management, would be in a position to defeat the effort in the interest of its own route by way of the Sound.

The danger to the O. R. & N. property in the proposed arrangement lies in the facts as above stated. When it was found, as it must be under the lease, that the interests of the company depended upon operations on the lower river to make the carriage from Portland to the sea the same or less than from the Sound ports to the sea, it would find its hands tied. It would, under its engagement, have no power to help itself. The means of successful competition while in sight, would be practically unattainable. The Northern could and would divert the whole traffic to its own line, strip the O R & N to the skin, and it would not have the power to raise a hand in its own protection.

To this, the eastern stockholders of the O. R. & N. Co. seem indifferent because they say the lease assures them a fixed per cent. on the value of the property without reference to what it earns. They seem not to realize the danger of abrogation of the lease and the throwing back of the property on their hand after the damage has been done Five years or ten would give the Northern time to divert the traffic of the basin and fix it in the Sound channel and to extend its branches in all directions through the basin, connecting every part of the country with their road leading to the Sound Only a little time would pass before the O. R. & N., would cease to be a paying property How easy it would be after the road has been stripped of its business, to trump up a pretext and throw it over, railroad lawyers well know

The part of the Union Pacific people in consenting to this joint lease is folly pure and simple They propose to divide a profitable business with the Northern with no chance for any thing in return. They have been out generaled, trapped into an agreement which must inevitably leave them bound to pay half the rental on a non paying property. Through the transfer of the larger part of Portland's general business to Puget sound, within the immediate territory of the Northern, the greater part of its (the Union Pacific's) through traffic would be wiped out. It would have to see itself fleeced and robbed, with the alternative of "grinning and bearing it," or of seeking release through legal jugglery from its hard contract.

There are those in the Columbia basin who, viewing the pending negotiations, smile complacently in the vain conceit that they have nothing to lose Through state pride, or in revenge for irritating exactions through many years past, or "just for the sake of a change," they would be quite willing to see their business transferred to a new channel. Those who view the matter in this careless spirit do not comprehend the situation, do not reckon the cost. The joint lease means the strangling of competition, delay in the extension of lines to suit the convenience of the combination managers and the transfer of their traffic from a level to a mountain outlet. The advantage afforded them by nature in the Columbia river pass would be nullified by an arrangement which would "tie up" the road through this pass and force their traffic over the heavy grades of the Cascade mountains It would substitute an outlet, where charges must always be high, for an outlet where they might be cheap and would be under a competitive system.

Backed as it is by the interests of the city, of the whole Columbia basin, of the O R & N, as property and of the Union Pacific, and supported by the law of the state, Portland's protest ought and will defeat this mistaken and damaging scheme It is clearly evident that it was negotiated under false or insufficient information both as to the business situation and the law Messrs M Cracken, Failing, Sibson, Lewis, Scott and Dolph who are now on the way to New York by invitation to confer with the parties to the arrangement, are qualified to speak of and for the interests involved and they will speak in no uncertain tone

THE STRIKE.

Our dispatches report that the great strike of the locomotive engineers shows signs of weakness and probable collapse. This news, if not true, ought to be true The original strike on the C B & Q was a mistake Its extension to the Santa Fe Atchison & Topeka railroad was a worse blunder, and retreat upon the part of the strikers is but justice and sound policy The mistake which the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers are in danger of making is the one which the Knights of Labor made during the labor troubles of 1886 in the Southwest, and which the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers made in October, 1876, culminating in the famous Pittsburg riots of July, 1877 It is the mistake of assuming that they have the right to bring the entire business of the country to a standstill until the particular corporation against which they have a grievance shall comply with their demands. Public opinion will no more support a conspiracy to paralyze the whole business of the country for the redress of private, personal grievances than they would consent to let a great city burn up because its fire department had struck for higher wages. The right of the public to be served by the railroads chartered by the state, is supreme over the right of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers to a settlement of their grievances against the C B & Q corporation.

The strike of October 1876 on the Cairo & St. Louis railroad was a failure, the strikers were not reinstated nor were the original rates of pay restored. The strike of February 12, 1877, on the Boston & Maine railroad was a failure. The strike on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad April 14, 1877, was also a complete failure Since July 7, 1877 the Locomotive Brotherhood have not originated or taken part in a strike until the present insurrection on the C. B. & Q railway The time for retreat of the Brotherhood from a false position ought not be lost; the interstate commerce law gives the C., B. & Q. railway the right to demand that connecting roads shall take its cars. If they refuse this service the law says that for each separate refusal they shall be liable to a penalty of $5000 to be enforced by the United States circuit court. The statutes of the United States will be enforced and Judge Dundy of the U. S. district court has already decided that while the engineers of the Union Pacific have a right to quit work, they have no right to enter into a conspiracy to prevent any railroad from exchanging freight with another, as by the law it is required to do, that they have no right to refuse to haul the cars of the offending corporation, and that such refusal would subject them to imprisonment. The Union Pacific is the creation of congress and congress has enacted that its operatives must, at all times, exchange and handle freights of certain intersecting lines, and the interstate commerce law re-enacts this for all roads. The extension of the original strike to roads handling freight from or for the Burlington and Quincy had no justification. There is no complaint against these roads which are bound under law to receive and deliver the freight of the Burlington railroad. To stall the whole business of roads that have given no offence, and to conspire against their compliance with the laws of the United States was a wanton abuse and misuse of the powers of the Locomotive Brotherhood No labor organization can set itself up as an agent to make it impossible for the railways of the country to comply with the laws of the United States without becoming legally liable to prosecution for conspiracy The Burlington engineers have a perfect right to strike but they have no right to prevent other companies from doing business they are bound to do, in obedience to the federal law, with the Burlington road It is not too late for the strikers to recede from this false and perilous position and if they are wise they will not stand upon the order for retreat but retire at once To continue to hold their position would make the Brotherhood of Engineers a conspirator and and rebel against the laws of the United States

The Cleveland democratic journals are very bitter in their denunciation of Randall. The St Louis Republican says "He ought to understand that if he again obstructs democratic reform in the house, the crisis absolutely requires that he should be kicked out of the party so effectively and expeditiously that his head will not have time to swim" The Detroit News says "The fact that he is the chairman of the most powerful committee—that on appropriations—appointed by the democratic speaker, and as such responsible to the majority, makes his course simply impertinent, and the position of the majority contemptible and ridiculous. Under any system of real parliamentary government he would resign his chairmanship and take his position openly with the opposition before thus antagonizing the most important majority measure" Reading Randall out of the party would be difficult as well as dangerous business. CURRENT POLITICAL EXPRESSION

New York Sun The transportation industry has been finding new benefits conferred by the interstate law ever since it was enacted This last may prove to be one of the most desirable

St Louis Globe Democrat Judge Gresham appears to be attending strictly to his business, without giving a thought to the presidency The people, however, seem to have their minds on him just the same.

Chattanooga Times The Southern editors who indorse the Mills tariff bill because it deals kindly with Southern coal, iron ore, pig iron, etc., make the capital mistake of treating protection as a mere collection of jobs.

New York Sun The whole idea of an Irish vote, a Scotch vote, an Italian vote, a Bohemian vote or a Scandinavian vote belongs, so far as the city of New York is concerned, to a past era, and is entertained only by a few petty and purposeless hotheads

New Orleans Times Democrat The colored people of the South would do well to fight shy of the scheme to promote negro exodus to Brazil, and it is the duty of all honest journals to warn them against the agents who, as it is stated, are now canvassing the scheme throughout the Southern states.

New York Tribune The firm hold which the republican club idea has taken upon the masses of the party was shown by the enthusiastic gathering in Springfield, Illinois. Illinois is not an exceptional case. The work of organizing clubs and spreading republican ideas and doctrines is going on bravely in all quarters of the Union.

Kalamazoo Telegraph It is already clear that Gresham's name will call for the most serious consideration from the republican national convention There is no doubt about where the republican party stands on the tariff It is not desirous of putting up a man of contrary convictions for its nominee The great Illinois judge is now relieved, on this point from a misunderstanding that might have done harm

New York Sun The fact that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers have deemed it advisable to extend their strike, shows that they regard their original strike upon the Chicago Burlington & Quincy railroad as a failure No other conclusion is possible But having failed to bring that railroad to terms have they any greater probability of success in a bigger strike against a greater number of railroads? The human brain is heaviest between the ages of 14 and 20 This is a somewhat remarkable scientific fact when we come to consider that this is the identical period at which the human head is biggest —Washington Critic.

This is about the time of year that a man decides on becoming an amateur gardener He should apply to the man who became an amateur gardener this time last year if he would like to get $10 to $15 worth of implements for about $1 50 —Puck

"Well, for my part," said Henderson, "I don't think much of your smart women If other men want to marry them it is no affair of mine but none of them for me, thank you I don't want a wife that knows more than I do" "And so," remarked Fogg, "you remain single" —Boston Transcript.

Dying man (faintly)—Darling! Sorrowing wife (between sobs)—Yes, dear? Dying man—When I am gone, love, I desire that you should marry again as soon as you can Sorrowing wife—O, why do you talk like that Dying man—Because I know you will, anyway, and I want people to understand that it was my request —Lowell Citizen

Elderly spinster—"I can't see why you young girls should be so absurdly timid You can't walk a block after dark without being in an agony of fear, thinking that somebody may be following you." "Do you never look back to see if some man is following you?" "No, what's the use? It wouldn't be my luck."—Lincoln Journal.

A Change for the Worse in the Emperor's Condition.

HEAVY SNOW STORM IN GERMANY

A Periodical Fight in Dublin—Gen Boulanger Gets Permission to Reside in Paris—Minister Bell Coming Home

BERLIN March 18 —Serious reports concerning the emperor's condition are again in circulation The emperor's despondency, which has been increased by the change from the blue sky of San Remo to the severe frost and deep snow of Berlin, causes great anxiety, although he can speak, his voice is so thick and husky, and his pronunciation of vowels so imperfect, that only those who have been constantly with him can understand him. Chaplain Koegel after reading service for Empress Augusta in the palace this morning, went to Charlottenberg to officiate at the service for the whole imperial family in Castel chapel. Dr Koegel's touching sermon drew many tears There is still a foot of snow on the ground, and it is impossible for the emperor to venture out. Whenever Dr Mackenzie takes exercise in the garden of the palace he is followed, at the desire of Empress Victoria, by a couple of detectives

HEAVY STORMS IN GERMANY.

Judge Gresham's Tariff Views.

Chicago Herald Dem

Judge Gresham's tariff views are often asked after The judge himself declines to talk at this time for publication, not through timidity, but on account of his wholesome fear of being considered an aspirant for political honors And yet the judge's tariff views are well known to his friends He is a protectionist, but he was in full accord with President Arthur, as a member of his cabinet, when Arthur sent his messages to congress recommending a judicious reduction of taxation the same sentiment that was expressed in the republican national platform of 1884 in these words "The republican party pledges itself to correct the inequalities of the tariff and to reduce the surplus by such methods as will relieve the taxpayer without injury to labor or the great productive interests of the country." A close friend of Gresham says that sentence expresses the judge's doctrine as closely as any words can.

It Was Not a Doctor He Needed.

Texas Siftings.

Lawyer Pullman is an Austin lawyer who has a great reputation for collecting bad debts If the money can be got out of a man he will get it It was to this lawyer that Bob Sinckle referred when he was requested to run quickly for a doctor as a neighbor's child had swallowed a coin.

"Doctor be blowed I'll run fo Lawyer Pullman. He'll get the money out of that kid quicker than a doctor"

Randall's Great Scheme

Savannah News

AN APPEAL FOR REFORM.

An Address to the Democratic Voters of Multnomah County.

PORTLAND, Or., March 18, 1888.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF MULTNOMAH COUNTY:—It is with great reluctance that I place myself, thus prominently before you yet I cannot but feel that the questions upon which I write, are of such gravity in their relations to us all as citizens, as to compel me to waive my personality in the matter.

Situated as I am, in an occupation, the success of which depends upon the patronage that comes from my fellow-citizens, regardless of party affiliations, it necessarily follows, that part of my duty is to make clear to every one that my acts, as a democrat, have not been in the interests of mere partisanship.

Nearly two years ago, the convention, representing the democratic party of Multnomah county, conferred upon myself, the honor of the chairmanship of its county committee, the primary duties of which, are accepted as being those that bring into effect the running machinery necessary to the carrying on of such active political campaigns as might occur during its term of service.

Such active service, is, of course, that of a general partisan nature, and is so regarded, inasmuch, as under the present system of party management, a committee is not made, and does not go into service until after a ticket (so called), is nominated, and a campaign inaugurated. So that, literally speaking, its work is all cut out for it, without allowing any discretion in the premises, narrowing down its line of conduct to the election of said ticket, regardless of merit or demerit. Next, further considering our present ways, the committee does nothing whatever afterward, until time for another election approaches, when they announce a date for party primaries, day for convention to be held, and number of delegates to be voted for, and then retire.

For the past twenty years such has been the unbroken course of action, or rather inaction, in this county. At no time has there been any organized attempt to get the voters of either party, in this county, to act at their primary meetings, and in proof of my assumption, I will say, that there was never, at any primary, as much as 10 per cent. of the vote cast at the election following.

And yet, the men who voted at these primary meetings were the only citizens of this county who exercised their elective franchise. The votes cast at the general election following are merely an endorsement of their action.

Whatever abuses that may have engrafted themselves into our departments of justice, or in the conduct of our municipal affairs, are merely the results of our not acting at the proper time.

If there are rings, who have dictated the manner or uses we are to make of our suffrage—we alone are to blame. If there are persons who in their capacity of public officials, have abused the trust that has been placed in their keeping, we alone are to be censured, inasmuch as we, by our abuse of the trust imposed upon us, by our form of government, in our refusal to attend to our known duty, have not only offered these men the excuse, but we have literally delegated over and over again to them, the power to continue in their work, with full knowledge of the same within our possession.

Why, gentlemen, in a legal sense, we are literally accessories to the fact, as much so, morally, as a man would be who should allow a theft to be committed, when he had it in his power to prevent the same.

Since I have called your attention to these evils, it is proper for me to suggest a remedy.

I will first state, in parenthesis, as it were, that for the past year, whenever it has been in my power, personally, I have earnestly tried to impress upon my friends and acquaintances the importance of some kind of organized action, tending toward reforming such abuses as have grown in upon our political system, and I feel happy to say, that with a few exceptions, I have received a cordial assent, as to the fact of such need, and if any discussion has occurred, it has only been as to method, or feasibility of action.

Now for a remedy: At a meeting of at least 200 democrats, representing the very best instincts of our party, held at Masonic hall, Tuesday, February 21, a plan for general organization, in this county, was presented and formally adopted.

The plan in brief was that a committee of ten be appointed to see that clubs were organized in each voting precinct of this county, and to ask each club to select two delegates; said delegates to meet as soon thereafter as practicable, as a body, for consultation as to what ends were best for our party organization.

I most earnestly appeal, in the name of good government, that you each go to the club of your respective precincts and place your name and address upon its roll. Become thus acquainted with your fellow-democrats, thereby enabling you, when primary day comes, to organize sufficiently with each other, so as to be able to send men to a convention, who are your peers as to honesty and ability. There need be no fear but that a convention composed of such men will do the work delegated to them well. And if such a happy consummation is reached by our proper action, we will have a ticket from coroner up, that will truly represent the principles of self-government.

In closing, I will say that there is no office of profit within your gift, that I would or could take (which my friends well know), and I only state such fact thus publicly, that suspicion as to my motives may be averted.

I will state further, that until organization is effected I shall devote every hour that I can possibly spare from my business affairs, to the carrying out of this end.

I am willing to accept help, in the shape of advice or otherwise, that my fellow-citizens may be pleased to favor me with.

In closing, I again ask your indulgence for thrusting myself forward thus publicly.

Ready-made Clothing.

The Suits which we manufacture for this department are made for the express purpose of supplying the wants of gentlemen who, believing that the best is the cheapest, are willing to pay a fair price for garments that have been made from carefully selected, thoroughly tested, honest materials, and by skillful, intelligent, well paid labor.

Prudent people deal with us, knowing that the prices we put on our goods are, considering quality, always the lowest. They know, also, that we put before them no old stock, but strictly new goods in their season.

Spring Suits

Although we have had but little real spring weather as yet, our sales of Light-Weight Suits have surpassed our greatest expectations, compelling us to telegraph East for immediate supplies. This is not so surprising when you consider that our display this spring has never been equaled in the Northwest for Elegance and Quality, while prices are lower than ever before.

Some men usually have poor luck in finding ready-made clothing to fit. They come in here with an expression of incredulity as they say, "Let's see those Spring Overcoats or Suits you advertise." The expression becomes one of satisfaction the moment the gentleman beholds in a mirror how perfectly the garments fit, and he is at once convinced that he can get of us just what he wants in the way of a Spring Suit or Light-weight Overcoat.

THIS MORNING

We display a New Invoice of Fisk, Clark & Flagg's

Neckwear.

Also, full lines of

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Republican Convention for Multnomah County is hereby called to meet at the Court House in the City of Portland, on Saturday, April 7, 1888, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating a full legislative and county ticket, to be voted for at the ensuing June election, the selecting of thirty delegates to attend the Republican State Convention to be held April 11, 1888 and the transacting of such other business as may properly come before it.

The committee find it necessary, in order to make a fair apportionment of delegates, based upon the vote cast at the last general election, to have the primary meetings held in the various precincts and polling places in the county, as established at the last election, without reference to any change since made therein by the county court.

For the purpose of electing the delegates primary meetings will be held in the various precincts in the cities of Portland, East Portland, Albina and Sellwood, between the hours of 4 o'clock and 7 o'clock P. M., and in all other precincts at 1 o'clock P. M. on Wednesday, the 4th day of April, 1888.

The convention will consist of seventy-one delegates, apportioned as follows:

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

ROW ABOUT A STAIRWAY.—There was a lively row in front of the Club saloon, at No. 124 First street, at 8:30 yesterday morning. Emil Weber, who says he holds a lease to the premises, engaged a carpenter named Jacobs and his foreman, Mr. Powell to tear down a stairway leading to the upper portion of the building in order, he says, to make more room for the boot black stand at the foot of the stairs. When the work was about completed Emil's brother Jacob, appeared on the scene, having been summoned by some one, and pulled Mr. Powell off the ladder upon which he was standing and hit him in the shoulder with a slung shot. Emil now came to the front and stood a lot of abuse from his brother who was armed with a pistol and a slung shot. Jake went away and returned later with another man, broke a door and attempted to tear down a portion of the work done by Powell. This is the story told by Emil, who says he will cause the arrest of his brother to-day on several charges. Repeated inquiries were made for Jake at his place of business, but he could not be found. This affray is only a continuation of the trouble between the two factions of gamblers. Justice Tuttle recently gave Emil Weber a judgment for possession of the premises over the saloon, but Jacob and others continued to occupy the rooms, and were in possession early Sunday morning.

CAPTAIN DEBNEY'S LAST TRIP.—Captain G. Debney, for nine years the popular master of the splendid steamer State of California, was busy yesterday bidding his friends good by and last night he left for San Francisco on the steamer, in command for the last time. Captain Debney has accepted the command of the steamer City of Pueblo, running between San Francisco and San Diego. Captain Ackley, late master of the steamer George W. Elder, succeeds to the command of the State of California. Captain Debney first came to Portland in 1858 as second officer on the old steamer Columbia. For the past eleven years he has been on the the Portland and San Francisco route. Nine years ago he brought the State of California to this port, and has been with that vessel ever since. During that period the vessel has made 21[illegible] round trips and carried nearly 120,000 passengers, not one of whom was injured. The only accident was the collision with the barkentine Portland. The fastest trip ever made by the State, or by any other steamer, was from Portland to San Francisco in forty-six hours. The best run from Astoria to San Francisco was made in thirty-seven hours. Capt. Debney never missed a trip.

A DAY OUT OF TOWN.—A large number of people patronized the trains on the P. & W. V. R. R. yesterday. Many stopped off at Fulton, South Portland and the White house, some to view the landscape, as marked off into lots and blocks, some merely to take a stroll and fully enjoy the regulation picnic weather and gather wild lilies. Many went to Oswego and inspected the works in progress there and the site of the addition to the town, where some enterprising party has a building nearly completed, and is burning out the stumps of the old fir trees and setting out young ones in their place. A picnic ground has been provided with tables and seats, but the crowd preferred to take their beer and sandwiches under a shed by a fire. A few wild flowers are to be found, and the strawberry blossoms are beginning to expand. In another week or so a stroll in the country will be very pleasant.

ENGINEER VIVIAN'S NARROW ESCAPE.—Walter R. Vivian, engineer of No. 4's engine, had a narrow escape from being killed yesterday. The driver of the hose cart was absent from duty yesterday, and his substitute was at dinner when the alarm came in shortly after noon. Mr. Vivian promptly supplied the vacancy, and everything went right until the cart reached Fourth and Madison streets, where the horse evinced a strong desire to cut across the plaza. Before Mr. Vivian could regain control of the animal the cart struck the curb and upset, Vivian falling beneath it into the gutter. But for this circumstance he would have been crushed by the heavy cart and its load of hose. He escaped with a few slight bruises. The cart was badly damaged and will need repairs.

THE LAST OF THE TIMBER CASES.—In the timber cutting case of the United States vs. Ball & Co., which was tried before Judge Deady last week, the verdict rendered by the jury was in favor of the plaintiffs, allowing them all they claimed. The suit was for 3,144,549 feet of lumber cut, the defendants admitting to 2,241,000 feet of this, showing a difference of 903,549 feet. In the testimony as to the value of the lumber in the tree, the defendants admitted it to be worth 15 cents per thousand feet, while the witnesses for the plaintiffs allowed from 20 to 75 cents per thousand feet. The verdict was for [illegible], the value of 3,144,549 feet of lumber at 20 cents per thousand feet; being a difference of $292 75, the value of 2,241,000 feet of lumber at 15 cents per thousand.

THE PAUPER DEAD.—The body of Charles [illegible], who died suddenly of heart disease at [illegible] & Unkless's stable Saturday, was [illegible] the poor farm for burial. Since the refusal of County Judge Catlin to increase the allowance for the burial of pauper dead from $10 to $20, four or five bodies have been buried by Superintendent McBride, of the poor farm, so Coroner DeLin says. In accordance with an agreement made between the undertakers of this city and East Portland, Coroner DeLin declines to bury the pauper dead, and in defense of his position maintains that $10 is not a sufficient recompense. He asserts that no other county pays less than $20, while some give more, Baker paying $35 and Morrow $40.

DEATH OF FRANK PHILLIPPI.—Frank Phillippi, a well known young man of Portland, died in this city yesterday at the home of his mother, Mrs. A. Phillippi. His age was 28 years 5 months and 16 days. A young wife survives him. Deceased has spent most of his life in Portland, where he has a large circle of friends and acquaintances, who will deeply regret to learn of his death. He was for a time a student at Heidelberg, Germany. By avocation, deceased was a wood engraver. He was a son of A. Phillippi, who will be remembered as one of the pioneer brewers of Portland. The funeral will take place this afternoon from the residence of Mrs. A. Phillippi.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Last Friday as Fillmore, son of Hon. Plin Cooper, a few miles south of Roseburg, essayed to take up a set of doubletrees from the side of the barn, the horse on which he was mounted took fright and threw him off, his foot getting caught in the traces. The horse ran around the barnyard at a fearful rate, dragging the boy after him, and kicking as he ran. The young man's skull was broken by a kick, and when freed from the horse he was found to be in a dying condition. This was witnessed by his terrified mother and sister, who tried to relieve him, but in vain.

NO STEELHEADS BEING CAUGHT.—All the fishermen at Oregon City have agreed not to catch steelhead salmon during the close season. This is the result of the visit of Gov. Pennoyer and State Fish Commissioner E. P. Thompson to Oregon City Saturday. The law now protects all species of salmon. Mr Thompson thinks that the express companies should cooperate with the commission in enforcing the law by refusing to carry any kind of salmon during the close season, and with a view of obtaining their co-operation he will confer with them to-day.

PEARL PAGE NON-COMMITTAL.—Mrs. Rose Bryant, alias Pearl Page, who is now in the county jail awaiting trial for complicity in the robbery of G. Dickenson, was asked by a reporter yesterday if she desired to make a statement for publication. She smilingly replied that she had read the statement of her husband in yesterday's OREGONIAN, but had nothing to say. "All that I know," she said, "will come out at my trial, Wednesday." The conviction of her confederate, C M Harding, was a surprise to her, also to Harding.

NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION.—General Freight Agent B. Campbell, of the O. R. & N., announces that all school books, maps or other articles shipped for exhibition at the meeting of the National Educational Association in San Francisco July 7 to 20, will be transported at full rates and returned free of charge to the original shippers, if accompanied by a certificate from the secretary or other proper officer of the association stating that the articles named have been on exhibition and have not changed ownership.

THE OREGON & CALIFORNIA.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Oregon & California railroad has been called for April 10, but a well informed railroad man believes that no business will be transacted before May or June. The same gentleman is of the opinion that the receivership of the road will be closed up the coming summer. C. E. Bretherton, formerly vice-president of the O. & C. and now attorney and agent of the Southern Pacific Company in England, will come to this city in June or [illegible].

FOR THIRTY DOLLARS.—Yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock Officer Henline arrested a boy named Stewart Moore for larceny from the person. A darkey bootblack named Charles Miller is the complaining witness. While shaking dice in a back room of the Louvre saloon, on First street, two men or boys held Miller while Moore went through his pockets, taking a $20 gold piece and $10 in silver. Moore, who has been working in the Louvre beer saloon as a waiter, claims that he won the money gambling.

CANOE CLUB TALKED OF.—A new canoe club is on the eve of organization. A number of young men are becoming deeply interested in this most fascinating of all inland acquatic sports. The old club petered out about as the Rod and Gun club did. All such organizations should be free to young men, with fresh enthusiasm and new ideas. Old men are desirable, too, but they should be willing to give way to the active spirits and not bother and hamper them with old fogy notions.

WRIT OF MANDAMUS.—District Attorney McGinn and his deputy, N. D. Simon, will go to Salem next Monday to argue in the supreme court against the alternative writ of mandamus served on Judge Stearns to compel him to sign the bill in the cases of Chee Gong and Fong Long Dick, the condemned Chinese murderers. Judge Stearns, in his answer, will state that the bill was not presented until after the end of the term of court in which the cases were tried.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS.—At a meeting of the board of school directors Saturday, Mr. L. Therkelsen, the new director, took his seat. The $50,000 bonds of H. S. Allen, school clerk, were accepted, and he assumed the duties of his office. His bondsmen are J. H. Jones, George Ham, W. W. Spaulding, Frank Hacheney, R. Williams, Theo. B. Wilcox.

SAN GREAL SOCIETY.—The fourth anniversary and reunion of the young people's society of the First Presbyterian congregation will be held in the church this evening. Members and friends of the young people will please assemble at 7 30 o'clock.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge Deady will deliver his opinion this morning in this court in the case of Gest vs. Packwood et al. on the plea to the bill.

LOCAL NOTES.

Popular prices will prevail this week at the New Park theater. The same scale as during the last week of the Pyke Opera Company's engagement.

The members and newly elected directors of the Y. M. C. A. will hold an adjourned business meeting to-night, when the officers for the year will be elected.

Prof. Livingston Stone, of the United States fish commission left Spokane Falls last Thursday for North Yakima. He is looking for a suitable place to locate a fish hatchery.

Last evening a man named Sawyer, living at Mr. Abraham's place, on the base line road, one and a half miles from East Portland, died very suddenly. Heart disease was the cause.

The alarm from box 13 at 12 15 yesterday afternoon was caused by a chimney fire in the house at No. 128 Third street, near Alder, occupied by E. G. Zacher. Damage nominal.

In the suit of Melissa D. Thayer et al. vs. the city to prevent the collection of the assessment of Twelfth street, the defendant has filed a demurrer to the complaint in the state circuit court.

The tug Puritan will be put on the ways to-day for repairs and will be taken down the river April 1st to run between Fort Stevens and and Cathlamet in the interest of the Warren Packing Company.

A letter received from Supt. Tonkin of the Arlington mine states that the bottom of the shaft is in five feet of solid ore containing some ruby silver and black sulphurets assaying 85 per cent. pure silver.

The Sunday afternoon meeting at the Y. M. C. A. was addressed in a very able manner by C. H. McDonald, engineer on the O. & C. R. R. An interesting and profitable meeting was experienced by the full house of young men in attendance.

The jury in the suit of Silas Beebe vs. Joseph Howitt, which was tried in Judge Shattuck's court Saturday, brought in a sealed verdict yesterday, which will be opened in court this morning. Beebe sued for $150 damages for two dogs alleged to have been poisoned by defendant.

Mr. E. T. Adams, who is engaged in the lumber business at Detroit, Michigan, is at the Holton house. He says that the Michigan lumber men take great interest in Oregon and thinks that within a few years many of them will build saw mills on the timber land they have purchased in this state.

Saturday afternoon Deputy Poundmaster Wilmer was hastily summoned to a house on B street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth, to kill a mad dog. He found a small, white spitzer in charge of a doorway, and everybody who passed risked being bitten. Mr. Wilmer despatched the rabid animal.

J. L. Stephens, an insane man, was taken to the asylum Saturday by Sheriff Bentley of Umatilla county. Stephens's hallucination is that [illegible] and that he has the power of revealing the wishes of God, to whom he is constantly telegraphing and writing letters.

The Portland Rowing Association boat house is at last in place, moored alongside of the dock about midway between Morrison and Yamhill streets. As it now lies it is in a very awkward place, but it will probably be shifted to some more accessible location. A few hundred feet either way would remedy the matter.

To-day William Flynn will have a hearing in the police court on a charge of larceny. A. T. Williams is the complainant. He alleges that he went into a saloon where Flynn was temporarily in charge, called for a glass of beer and tendered a five dollar gold piece in payment, receiving no change. Flynn says that the alleged five dollar piece was a nickel.

THE STAGE.

NEW PARK THEATER.—"Olivette" has proved such a strong drawing card that the management have decided to keep it on the boards of the New Park for two nights more, the "Child of the Regiment" being billed for Wednesday night without fail. As has been said before, the company give "Olivette" much better than "The Mikado," and it is now running very smoothly and winning continued and pronounced appreciation, the curtain being demanded three and four times after the farandale of the second act at every performance. It seems hardly credible for such young people, really children, the three girls taking the leading characters being under 17 years of age, to do such excellent work. The sobbing song in the first act as sung by pretty little Camille Cleveland gains new charms, and the duet "I Love My Love," sung by Emma Berg and the same young lady in the second act, is a beautiful and highly artistic piece of work. As the plotting, scheming Duc des Ifs Julia Martin is a perfect picture and has as finished a conception of the part as could be wished for. The conspiracy scene with Coquelicot in the second act being particularly good. Teddy Gamble in his "Bob up serenely" song and grotesque dancing, nightly provokes roars of laughter. With proper care the boy will make a second Francis Wilson, the pet comedian of New York. Olivette to-night and to-morrow night.

IDAHO INSANE ASYLUM.

I. N. Coston, one of the commissioners of the Idaho insane asylum, furnishes the Boise Statesman the following summary from the records of the asylum for the quarter ending March 1, 1888. Number of patients in the asylum at beginning of quarter, 52—34 males and 18 females, number of patients admitted during quarter, 3, number of patients discharged during quarter, 1; number patients died during quarter, 0, number of patients remaining in asylum at end of quarter, 51—35 males and 16 females; daily average number in asylum during quarter, 52 54-91; pay roll and amount of issues of supplies during quarter, $3580 35, per capita cost of caring for patients during quarter, per day 75 cents, per week $5 25, amount received for caring for non-indigent patients, $27 42, total amount of bills allowed for the quarter, $4564 11.

WEDDING AT CORVALLIS

CORVALLIS, March 18

Among the social events of the week at Corvallis was the marriage of Mr Andrew T. Kelser to Miss Nellie Hitchens. Both the contracting parties have long been residents of Corvallis, and a host of friends wish them a prosperous voyage through life. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends, at 11 A. M. on Thursday, Rev J. T. Wolfe being the officiating clergyman. After a bountiful feast the happy couple boarded the train for Portland, where they intend spending a few days, when they will leave for Southern Oregon, where they will make their future home.

PERSONAL.

Mr Philip Ritz, of Walla Walla, is in the city.

Mr F H. Moore, of St Helens, is at the St. Charles.

Mr Edward Cookingham visited the Roslyn, W. T coal mines last week, in company with Mr. John Kangley.

Mr. F J. Carroll, the mining engineer, returned from Spokane Falls Saturday, and left for San Francisco on the overland express yesterday afternoon.

WHEN THE LIVER FAILS TO ACT, and you are bilious, and out of sorts, use Dr Jayne's Sanative Pills, to bring about a healthy action of the Liver, and remove all distressing symptoms.

The best family remedy is undoubtedly Pfunder's Oregon Blood Purifier. Relieves when others fail. Safe for infants.

ABUSES OF SEAMEN.

An Interview with the District Attorney, Mr T A McBride.

He Thinks that Many of the Reports are Exaggerated—Some of the Difficulties of Prosecution—Need of a Harbor Police.

Hon. T A McBride, of Oregon City, district attorney of the fifth judicial district, which includes the counties of Clackamas, Washington, Columbia and Clatsop, was at the St. Charles yesterday. Being asked by an OREGONIAN reporter regarding the alleged abuses to seamen at Astoria, of which much has been said lately, he replied. "There is a general want of knowledge of facts in discussion. Since I became district attorney, four years ago, seven men have been tried for abuses to seamen. Six were sentenced to the penitentiary and one was acquitted. Myself and deputies are doing all we can in the matter.

Mr. Laidlaw, in his letter in THE OREGONIAN, speaks of a case, that of the "Lucipara," of malicious prosecution, in which he alleges the assistant prosecuting attorney was engaged. My deputy, Mr. C. R. Watson, was at Coos bay on business at the time, and had no part in the case. It was, in fact, instituted by private counsel. I have always found the Astoria grand juries ready to return indictments whenever there was sufficient evidence. There was a failure to indict in one case which Mr. Laidlaw mentions in his communication, but the fact was that the sailors, after making their statement to Mr. Laidlaw and repeating the same to me effected some sort of compromise with the boarding house keepers, and then coming before the grand jury denied all previous statements. Mr. Laidlaw was, of course, not aware of this. He has always been very active in his endeavors to protect seamen and deserves a great deal of credit therefor.

"There has been complaint that sailors are induced to desert from ships at Astoria, and I have endeavored to prosecute some of these cases, but the difficulty has been that they generally occur during intervals between terms of court, and the captains of vessels, who are necessary witnesses, are gone when the cases are ready for investigation by the grand jury. For this reason the offenders have escaped punishment in two or three instances. I think there is a general disposition among the officers at Astoria to enforce the law as far as they can.

"As far as the arrest of sailors on civil process is concerned, the magistrate has no right to refuse to issue a writ of arrest if the proper complaint, affidavit and bond have been filed with him, and I know that such has been done at times when, in fact, the proceedings were most likely intended for vexation rather than to collect an honest debt."

"I think that for the better protection of sailors at Astoria and Portland, there should be a system of harbor police, to be paid by the state; and until this is done, I don't see that very much more can be done to protect sailors of outward bound vessels. I think that a great many of the reports of outrages at Astoria are very greatly exaggerated and that Astoria will compare favorably with any other port on the coast with the same amount of shipping."

THE EAST SIDE.

Case Dismissed—Republican Club Meeting—Sinking to Rest—An Investigation.

Some time ago Mr. William Atkins, a farmer residing on Columbia slough, was on his way to the sawmill in a spring wagon, accompanied by his wife. When near the schoolhouse he saw a deer inside the adjoining field, chased by a hound, and was evidently wounded and ready to perish. He drove off the dog and went to the deer, which had fallen on its side. As Mr. Atkins stepped up to the deer the animal stretched out its legs and was soon dead. Atkins threw the deer into his wagon, took it on to the mill with him, and then brought it home with him, where he skinned it. He found that the animal had been shot in the shoulder with two buck shot and one had entered the backbone. Mr. Atkins was subsequently arrested on charge of violating the game law and arraigned before Justice Bullock. When all the evidence was in and Atkins had made his statement, on motion of Mr. Sears the case was dismissed, as it was clearly shown that the defendant did not kill the deer and did not intend to commit any crime. There were a number of witnesses in the case who testified that [illegible] just before Atkins had it in his wagon, and it seemed wounded and worn out. The deer had evidently been shot by some one and chased by the hound to the place indicated.

REPUBLICAN CLUB MEETING.

The Central Republican Club meeting was held in Hall & Stott's hall Saturday night, and was called to order by John Hall, chairman. After several committees had made their reports it was announced that there were enrolled 101 members, about fifty having been added since the last meeting. This makes the largest membership in any one club on either side of the river. A recess was had, during which more names were added to the roll. After recess it was suggested that some action be taken to organize a glee club and have open meetings. The suggestion was warmly supported by Prof. Wetzell, E. C. Wheeler and others, and on motion the matter was placed in the hands of the executive committee. Judge J. K. Wait was then called on. He spoke earnestly on the importance of the minor offices and the importance of electing good men for county commissioners and assessor. He thought every republican should inform himself thoroughly on all issues involved in the coming election. On the whole, the judge made a capital address. He was followed by Judge Bullock, N. McCoy and Mr. Wheeler in brief addresses.

AN INVESTIGATION.

There will be an open meeting of the board of managers of the W. C. T. U. Baby Home at the W. C. T. U. hall, corner Tenth and J streets this afternoon from 1 to 2.30. All persons in any way interested, and the public generally are invited and urged to be present. By order of the president.

The business to be transacted at this meeting will be the dispute between the managers of the Baby Home and Mrs. Kidder.

PASSING AWAY.

Rev. George Wills, of Willsburg, is very ill and not expected to live. He was taken down several days ago, and has been growing weaker ever since. Being an aged man the end cannot be far off. Mrs. Sarah Wills, his wife, died at her home in Willsburg just two years ago. Father Wills and his wife were pioneers, and have witnessed the growth of this country from its infancy.

NOTES.

There will be a regular meeting of the common council this evening.

There will be services in the Presbyterian church every night this week, beginning this evening. Rev. Gamble, of Goldendale, will preach.

Wash Allen is putting the finishing touches on his new dwelling on Fifth street. The grounds and buildings will cost in all about $12,000.

Mr. Guy Possen has returned home after an absence of three weeks, during which time he visited the Sound country, the Palouse country and Eastern Oregon.

The reason the rails for the street car line has not been extended across the bridge draw is that the company ran short of rails. They are expected to-day, when the line will be quickly completed over the draw.

Immense quantities of slag from the smelter of the Reduction works since the works have been in operation, have been thrown into the slough. Tests have demonstrated that this slag contains about as much precious metal as low grade ore. It is stated that this slag will be put through the smelter again.

Mr J. F. Rhodes, who has been postmaster at Willsburg ever since an office was established there, has resigned and gone to The Dalles where he will begin teaching to-day. Wm. Wills is now in charge of the office and will probably receive his commission soon. He has also been made ticket agent at Willsburg for the O & C.

The Methodist Sunday school of this city has taken steps toward a picnic and excursion to be given some time in May. A committee has been appointed to look up grounds and mode of transportation, and a report will be made at the next regular meeting. The committee is composed of Rev L. D. Driver, H. Hansen, W H Moore, J. A. Hines and Walter Smith.

Workmen were engaged yesterday putting some heavy timbers in the Fourth street bridge in that portion south of the railroad. It was stated that the truss will be taken down in the hope that the rest of the bridge will stand. The break in the water main was repaired Saturday, but the people in Holladay's addition had to keep a good supply of water on hand in case of another accident. There should be an entirely new bridge put up at this point. The old one is wrecked. When a new bridge is built it should be one span. It could be built on top of the old one before the latter is removed.
